

 P1 P2 P3 P4 EKOT RADIOSPORTEN

SR International - Radio Sweden

21 11 2007

Swedish Telecom giant Ericsson gets into some hot water, again, with accusations of bribery while it warns of weaker fourth quarter profits.

President Karl-Henric Svanberg D'Ericsson

Swedish Telecom giant Ericsson is in trouble again. Claims that the company has bribed its way to contracts in the Middle East, as well as falling share prices following negative signals about 4th quarter profits have put the company in the spotlight again for all the wrong reasons.

 Listen to Alexander Hirschfelder's report